

Maria Camila Uribe, Coordinator of the Inter-American Development Bank's (IDB) Cities Network as a Principal Technical Leader.

Maria Camila holds both a bachelor and studies in master's degree in economics from Los Andes University in Colombia, a master's degree in Public Administration from the Kennedy School at Harvard University and is at present pursuing a master's degree in Cities at the London School of Economics. Previously, she served as Representative for Chile at the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) and then as Principal Advisor of the Office of Strategic Planning and Development Effectiveness (SPD) and Chief of Services to the Boards, Committee and Management in the IDB's Office of the Secretary. She has over 18 years of experience in the Colombian public sector, having served as Bogota's Secretary of Planning, Director of Cadastre, and Tax Director, as well as serving as an advisor to the Colombian Ministry of Finance and the National Planning Department. Her areas of expertise include local taxes and urban issues.